Jeff, Earle,

I completed a fresh read of the latest draft and made a few more edits. I also generated the new Conclusion bullet that we discussed. And found a couple of typos and sentences that were out of place. Cleaned that up as well.

And I added some references to the Reference Section. I noticed that there are some comments from Jeff to Earle in that section. You should look at those.

I have attached the draft with my edits (track changes). If you haven't started review of the draft I sent you Friday, you may want to read this instead.

Talk with you on Monday.

Mark
